JUDGMENT
AND PROB/
COMM
ORDER

The Court asked whether defendant had anything to say why judgment should not be pronounced. Because no sufficient cause to the contrary was shown, or appeared to the Court, the Court adjudged the defendant guilty as charged and convicted and ordered that: Pursuant to the Sentencing Reform Act of 1984, it is the judgment of the Court that the defendant is hereby committed on Counts 1, 2, and 3 of the First Superseding Indictment for a term of 130 MONTHS. This term consists of 46 months on Counts 1 and 2, to be served concurrently, and 84 months on Count 3, to be served consecutively to the other counts.

IT IS ORDERED that the defendant shall pay to the United States a special assessment of $300, which is due immediately.

Pursuant to Section 5E1.2(e) of the Guidelines, all fines are waived as it is found that the defendant does not have the ability to pay a fine.

Upon release from imprisonment, the defendant shall be placed on supervised release for a term of five years. This term consists of three years on Count 1 and five years on Counts 2 and 3, all such terms to run concurrently under the following terms and conditions:

1. The defendant shall comply with the rules and regulations of the Probation Office and General Order 318;
2. The defendant shall refrain from any unlawful use of a controlled substance. The defendant shall submit to one drug test within 15 days of release from imprisonment and at least two periodic drug tests thereafter, not to exceed eight tests per month, as directed by the Probation Officer;
3. The defendant shall participate in an outpatient substance abuse treatment and counseling program that include urinalysis, saliva and/or sweat patch testing, as directed by the Probation Officer. The defendant shall abstain from using illicit drugs, alcohol, and abusing prescription medications during the period of supervision;

USA vs. BRANDON NEALDocket No.: CR 04-732(D)-RSWL

4. During the course of supervision, the Probation Officer, with the agreement of the defendant and defense counsel, may place the defendant in a residential drug treatment program approved by the U.S. Probation Office for treatment of narcotic addiction or drug dependency, which may include counseling and testing, to determine if the defendant has reverted to the use of drugs, and the defendant shall reside in the treatment program until discharged by the Program Director and Probation Officer;
5. As directed by the Probation Officer, the defendant shall pay all or part of the costs of treating the defendant's drug dependency to the aftercare contractor during the period of community supervision, pursuant to 18 USC 3672. The defendant shall provide payment and proof of payment as directed by the Probation Officer;
6. During the period of community supervision, the defendant shall pay the special assessment in accordance with this judgment's orders pertaining to such payment;
7. When not employed at least part-time and/or enrolled in an educational or vocational program, the defendant shall perform 20 hours of community service per week as directed by the Probation Officer;
8. The defendant shall cooperate in the collection of a DNA sample from the defendant;
9. The defendant shall not associate with any member of any criminal street gang or disruptive group as directed by the Probation Officer, specifically, any member of the Rolling Harlem Crips street gang;
10. The defendant shall not be present in any area known as a criminal street gang gathering of the Rolling 30's Harlem Crips, as directed by the Probation Officer; and,
11. The defendant shall not wear, display, use, or possess any insignia, emblem, button, badge, cap, hat, scarf, bandana, jewelry, paraphernalia, or any article of clothing which may connote affiliation with, or membership in the Rolling 30's Harlem Crips street gang.

The Court authorizes the Probation Officer to disclose the Presentence Report to the substance abuse treatment provider to facilitate the defendant's treatment for narcotic addiction or drug dependency. Further, redisclosure of the Presentence Report by the treatment provider is prohibited without the consent of the sentencing judge.

The defendant has a limited right to appeal within 10 days of today's date.

In addition to the special conditions of supervision imposed above, it is hereby ordered that the Standard Conditions of Probation and Supervised Release within this judgment be imposed. The Court may change the conditions of supervision, reduce or extend the period of supervision, and at any time during the supervision period or within the maximum period permitted by law, may issue a warrant and revoke supervision for a violation occurring during the supervision period.
